HEC-French scholarships for students

Karachi—Institute of Business Management (IoBM) is the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Need based Scholarships says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section. This scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals.

Dr. Frédéric BESSAT, Counselor for Cooperation, Development and Culture, Embassy of France in Islamabad visited IoBM on Saturday, 16 February 2013. HEC guests on this occasion comprised Mr. Murad Shoaib Khan and Ms. Hajra Suhail. During their visit they met Mr. Shahjehan S. Karim, President, Rector, faculty members and students of IoBM. They also met selected students of the HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship Program. Mr. Talib Karim welcomed the guests and introduced IoBM.
IoBM offers HEC-French based scholarships

KARACHI: The Institute of Business Management (IoBM) is the only private institute among the top universities of Pakistan, which received lucrative HEC-French Need based scholarships, says an IoBM statement, issued on Saturday. It is pertinent to mention here that the scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals. The government of France through its Embassy in Islamabad offered scholarships for the studious but unprivileged students of six Pakistani Universities. The memorandum of understanding (MoU) was signed by the ambassador, chairperson HEC and representatives of six universities of the country. STAFF REPORT
KARACHI: Institute of Business Management (IoBM) is included among the top universities of Pakistan, the only one being from the private sector, as the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Need based Scholarships says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section. This scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals.

Dr. Frédéric BESSAT, Counselor for Cooperation, Development and Culture, Embassy of France in Islamabad visited IoBM on Saturday, 16 February 2013. HEC guests on this occasion comprised Mr. Murad Shoaib Khan and Ms. Hajra Suhail. During their visit they met Mr. Shahjehan S. Karim, President, Rector, faculty members and students of IoBM. They also met selected students of the HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship Program. Mr. Talib Karim welcomed the guests and introduced IoBM.

Government of France through its Embassy in Islamabad offered scholarships for the studious but unprivileged students of six Pakistani Universities. Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by the Ambassador, Chairperson HEC and representatives of six universities of the country. The ceremony was held at the French Embassy on July 19, 2012 in Islamabad, where the Chairperson, HEC was the chief guest in the occasion. The objective of the MoU is to support the students on the bases of financial destitution. This scholarship is offered in the fields of Social Science, Business and Architecture to the students of 6 top Pakistani universities, including IoBM.
IoBM students awarded HEC-French scholarship

Institute of Business Management (IoBM), the only university from the private sector has been included among the top universities of Pakistan, as the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Need based Scholarships, says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section here on Tuesday.

This scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals. Dr Frédéric BESSAT, Counsellor for Co-operation, Development and Culture, Embassy of France in Pakistan and Murad Shoaib Khan and Ms Hajra Suhail from the HEC, Government of Pakistan visited IoBM recently. During their visit they met Shah Jehan S Karim, President, Rector, faculty members and students of IoBM. They also met selected students of the HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship Program.

Government of France through its Embassy in Islamabad offered scholarships for the studious but unprivileged students of six Pakistani universities. Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by the Ambassador, Chairperson HEC and representatives of six universities of the country.

The ceremony was held at the French Embassy on July 19, 2012 in Islamabad, where the HEC Chairperson was the chief guest. The objective of the MoU is to support the students on the bases of financial destitution. This scholarship is offered in the fields of social science, business and architecture to the students of six top Pakistani universities, including IoBM.
HEC-French scholarships for Pakistani students

KARACHI: Institute of Business Management (IoBM) is included among the top universities of Pakistan, the only one being from the private sector, as the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Need based Scholarships says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section. This scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals.

Dr. Frédéric BESSAT, Counselor for Cooperation, Development and Culture, Embassy of France in Islamabad visited IoBM on Saturday, 16 February 2013. HEC guests on this occasion comprised Mr. Murad Shoaib Khan and Ms. Hajra Suhail. During their visit they met Mr. Shahjiehan S. Karim, President, Rector, faculty members and students of IoBM. They also met selected students of the HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship Program. Mr. Talib Karim welcomed the guests and introduced IoBM.

Government of France through its Embassy in Islamabad offered scholarships for the studious but unprivileged students of six Pakistani Universities. Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by the Ambassador, Chairperson HEC and representatives of six universities of the country. The ceremony was held at the French Embassy on July 19, 2012 in Islamabad, where the Chairperson, HEC was the chief guest in the occasion. The objective of the MoU is to support the students on the bases of financial destitution. This scholarship is offered in the fields of Social Science, Business and Architecture to the students of 6 top Pakistani universities, including IoBM.
HEC-FRENCH SCHOLARSHIPS FOR PAKISTANI STUDENTS

Institute of Business Management (IoBM) is included among the top universities of Pakistan, the only one being from the private sector, as the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section. This scheme of scholarship of the French government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals.

Dr. Frédéric BESSAT, Counselor for Cooperation, Development and Culture, Embassy of France in Islamabad visited IoBM on Saturday, 16 February 2013. HEC guests on this occasion comprised Mr. Murad Shoaib Khan and Ms Hajra Suhail. During their visit they met Mr. Shahjehan S. Karim, President, Rector, faculty members and students of IoBM. They also met selected students of the HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship Program. Mr. Talib Karim welcomed the guests and introduced IoBM.

Government of France through its embassy in Islamabad offered scholarships for the studious but unprivileged students of six Pakistani universities. Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by the Ambassador, Chairperson HEC and representatives of six universities of the country. The ceremony was held at the French Embassy on July 19, 2012 in Islamabad, where the Chairperson, HEC was the chief guest on the occasion. The objective of the MoU is to support the students on the bases of financial destitution. This scholarship is offered in the fields of Social Science, Business and Architecture to the students of 6 top Pakistani universities, including IoBM.
HEC-French scholarships for Pak students

KARACHI, Feb 18:
Institute of Business Management (IoBM) is included among the top universities of Pakistan, the only one being from the private sector, as the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Need Based Scholarships, says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section. This scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals.

Dr. Frederic BESSAT, Counselor for Cooperation, Development and Culture, Embassy of France in Islamabad visited IoBM recently. HEC agreed on this occasion to support Mr. Murad Sheedi Khan and Ms. Hafsa Suhail. During their visit they met Mr. Shahjehan S. Karim, President, Rector, faculty members and students of IoBM. They also met selected students of the HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship Program. Mr. Talib Karim welcomed the guests and introduced IoBM.

Government of France through its Embassy in Islamabad offered scholarships for the studious but unprivileged students of six Pakistan Universities. Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by the Ambassador, Chairperson HEC and representatives of six universities of the country. The ceremony was held at the French Embassy on July 19, 2012 in Islamabad, where the Chairperson HEC was the chief guest in the occasion.
Monday, February 18, 2013

HEC-French scholarships for IoBM

Institute of Business Management (IoBM) is included among the top universities of Pakistan, the only one being from the private sector, as the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Need based Scholarships says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section. This scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals.
IoBM students awarded HEC-French scholarship

Institute of Business Management (IoBM), the only university from the private sector has been included among the top universities of Pakistan, as the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Need based Scholarships, says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section here on Tuesday.

This scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals. Dr Frédéric BESSAT, Counselor for Co-operation, Development and Culture, Embassy of France in Pakistan and Murad Shoaib Khan and Ms Hajra Suhail from the HEC, Government of Pakistan visited IoBM recently. During their visit they met Shahjehan S Karim, President, Rector, faculty members and students of IoBM. They also met selected students of the HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship Program.

Government of France through its Embassy in Islamabad offered scholarships for the studious but unprivileged students of six Pakistani universities. Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by the Ambassador, Chairperson HEC and representatives of six universities of the country.

The ceremony was held at the French Embassy on July 19, 2012 in Islamabad, where the HEC Chairperson was the chief guest. The objective of the MoU is to support the students on the bases of financial destitution. This scholarship is offered in the fields of social science, business and architecture to the students of six top Pakistani universities, including IoBM.
Karachi Press Release February 17, 2013

HEC-French scholarships for IoBM students

Institute of Business Management (IoBM) is included among the top universities of Pakistan, the only one being from the private sector, as the recipient of lucrative HEC-French Need based Scholarships says an announcement from the IoBM Public Affairs Section. This scheme of scholarship of the French Government covers all cost including tuition fees, lodging, transportation, books and incidentals.

Dr. Frédéric BESSAT, Counselor for Cooperation, Development and Culture, Embassy of France in Pakistan and Mr. Murad Shoaib Khan and Ms. Hajra Suhail from the HEC, Government of Pakistan visited IoBM. During their visit they met Mr. Shahjehan S. Karim, President, Rector, faculty members and students of IoBM. They also met selected students of the HEC-French Needs Based Scholarship Program. Mr. Talib Karim welcomed the guests and introduced IoBM.

Government of France through its Embassy in Islamabad offered scholarships for the studious but unprivileged students of six Pakistani Universities. Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) was signed by the Ambassador, Chairperson HEC and representatives of six universities of the country. The ceremony was held at the French Embassy on July 19, 2012 in Islamabad, where the Chairperson, HEC was the chief guest in the occasion. The objective of the MoU is to support the students on the bases of financial destitution. This scholarship is offered in the fields of Social Science, Business and Architecture to the students of 6 top Pakistani universities, including IoBM.

021-35091905 0334-3013971 parvez@iobm.edu.pk