

DAILY NEWS

Founder: Mir Khalil-ur-Rahman

DAILY NEWS, Monday, December 14, 2015

933 students get degrees at 18th IoBM convocation

By Maqsood Hussain

KARACHI, Dec 14: The Institute of Business Management (IoBM) on Saturday organised its 18th convocation to award degrees, gold medals and merit certificates to 933 graduates.

The impressive event was held at the IoBM's campus in Korangi Creek, which was largely attended by students, parents, heads of multinational companies and corporate sector.

On the occasion, former president and Senate chairman Muhammad Mian Soomro was the chief guest while Pakistan Cables Chief Executive Kamal A Chinoy delivered a keynote address.

Wearing academic regalia with shining faces, 933 graduating students came one by one onto the stage to receive their degrees, gold medals and merit certificates from chief guest Muhammad Mian Soomro, IoBM chancellor Najmuddiin A Shaikh and Kamal A Chinoy.

Chief guest Soomro advised students to spread tolerance and justice. You must be ambitious but not greedy. You must strive to take challenges and have

He said that he could not stop witnessing the spark in the eyes of proud parents of graduating students as their children would now step into the real world.

In his keynote address, Chinoy felicitated the students, confidence in yourself. May Allah bless you all. You are future of Pakistan.

Earlier, IoBM President Shahjehan S Karim presented progress report of the institute.

their parents and teachers. "It is a day to remember rest of your life," he said. You must keep in mind that learning is a constant process. He asked the students to be strong in their life ahead.